DESCRIPTION

This double-layer insulated cooler backpack features a full-zip wide-opening design for easy packing, with both the upper and lower compartments fully insulated to keep food and drinks cold or warm for hours. Crafted from durable 300D polyester, it is lightweight yet wear-resistant for daily use. The lower compartment is lined with heat-pressed PEVA for reliable leakproof performance and easy cleaning, while two small exterior pockets provide extra storage for utensils or accessories. The upper compartment features insulating foil lining to maintain the temperature of meals and beverages for extended periods. A front pocket offers quick access to personal items like keys, a phone, or wallet, and a hidden zippered pocket on the back panel ensures secure storage for valuables. With adjustable padded shoulder straps and a breathable back panel for all-day comfort, this backpack is ideal for work and outdoor activities, combining dependable insulation, and a clean, modern design.
