DESCRIPTION

This large tote bag features full-bleed printing, which is capable of stably carrying daily necessities, laptops, snacks, cosmetics and beach supplies. The front face is crafted from poly-cotton canvas, while the side panels and rear section are made of natural burlap jute material. The reverse sides of this bag are laminated with thick PE fabric, which reinforces the bag's rigidity, delivers water and sand resistance. It is fitted with padded cotton-core handles for a soft, comfortable hand feel, alongside a zipper closure at the top opening and an internal pocket for safe storage of contents.
