DESCRIPTION

Built for long days under the sun, this men’s long-sleeve fishing T-shirt delivers lightweight comfort and dependable UV protection. Made from a 180 GSM performance fabric blend of 86% polyester and 14% spandex, it provides excellent stretch, durability, and freedom of movement for casting, reeling, and all-day wear. The integrated UPF 50+ sunproof fabric helps block harmful UVA and UVB rays, while moisture-wicking and breathable properties keep the body cool and dry in warm, humid conditions. Designed for full-color sublimation, this shirt supports vibrant, fade-resistant graphics that won’t crack or peel over time. Ideal for freshwater or saltwater use, fishing teams, tournaments, and outdoor brands, it offers reliable performance with a professional, long-lasting look. Available with optional raglan or set-in sleeves.
