DESCRIPTION

Engineered for high-intensity training and outdoor leisure, this performance visor features a technical mesh construction designed to maximize airflow and moisture management. The lightweight design provides essential sun protection while ensuring the head remains cool and dry during golf, running, or court sports. A reinforced curved brim shields the eyes from glare without obstructing peripheral vision. The integrated adjustable hook-and-loop closure at the back allows for a customizable, secure fit that accommodates most adult head sizes. Constructed with durable, quick-drying synthetic fabric, this athletic headwear maintains its shape and comfort through repetitive active use. Its sleek, low-profile aesthetic makes it a versatile accessory for team sports, corporate wellness programs, and outdoor event giveaways.
