DESCRIPTION

This telescopic folding stool is made from durable plastic and features a compact spiral collapsing structure for convenient storage and transportation. The adjustable telescopic design allows the stool to open and close smoothly with a secure twist-lock system for stable everyday use. It supports full color custom printing on the surface, making it suitable for promotional branding, company events, trade shows, outdoor gatherings, parties, and marketing activities. The lightweight construction makes it easy to carry while traveling, camping, waiting in line, or attending exhibitions and performances. When folded, the stool takes up minimal space and can be stored in bags, vehicles, or event supplies with ease. Its practical design combines portability, customizable branding space, and functional seating for both indoor and outdoor applications.
