DESCRIPTION

This outdoor backpack is crafted from durable, lightweight nylon, designed for hiking, cycling, camping, and other outdoor adventures. It can accommodate a 2 L hydration bladder and features a dedicated hose outlet for convenient hands-free drinking on the move. The backpack includes a zippered pocket on the left side for quick-access items, while front bungee cords provide flexible storage for extra gear or clothing. Multiple reflective strips enhance visibility in low-light conditions for added safety. An adjustable chest strap with a hanging loop and integrated survival whistle offers extra support and emergency readiness. Trekking pole attachment cords on both sides keep poles secure, and an internal key clip helps organize small essentials. With padded, adjustable shoulder straps and a breathable back panel, this hydration backpack combines comfort, safety, and smart storage for active outdoor use.
